
RAMANESWARAM

Divine Temple Town

About Us

Ramaneswaram, registered as “Shiva Shakthi Shirdi Sai Anugraha Mahapeetam” is a divine temple town dedicated to fostering the inner devotion of pilgrims. This is a temple town creating an established devotion in devotees towards Lord Shiva, Goddess Shakthi and Shirdi Sai.

Contact Us

Website

www.siddhaguru.org

Email

admin@siddhaguru.org

Tollfree No

18001022393

Address

#6-153/A Nagireddipally, Bhongir, Telangana, India-508285

Travel Guide

https://wikitravel.org/en/Ramaneswaram

https://tourism.telangana.gov.in/divine-destinations/ramaneswaram

Guidelines at Ramaneswaram

- Only Traditional wear is allowed during abhishek pooja. Dhotis are provided at the ashram for gents.

- Taking photographs is permitted. Use of mobile phones are allowed subject to capturing photographs only.

- Maintain silence inside the premises of the temple.

- Devotees are requested to be courteous with volunteers who will assist with queries.

- Consumption of Alcohol, tobacco, cigarettes, narcotic drugs and non-veg inside the temple premises is strictly prohibited.

RAMESWARAM

THE FOUNDER

HIS HOLINESS

Siddhaguru Sri Ramanananda Maharshi

ABOUT THE FOUNDER

Siddhaguru® Sri Ramanananda Maharshi is a spiritual master, a public-spirited and a selfless spiritual Guru possessing the quali-ties of the divine, love and benevolence. He believes in engaging people with God is a real social consciousness. On 29th June 1995, He entered a twenty-one-day period of silence (Samadhi) in Kanakadurga temple of Kurnool in the Indian state of Andhra Pradesh.

RAMAESWARAM

RAMANESWARAM

ATTRACTIONS

Grama Devatas (Village Deities)

1995

Ramaneswaram is embellished with 4 major Village deities Maremma, Yellamma, Poleramma,and Pochamma who protect this temple town and fulfill the wishes of the devotees. Once a devotee enters the Outer main gate of the temple; he or she should have a darshan of 4 Grama devatas consecrated here at Ramaneswaram and offer abhishekam to these deities and enter Mukha dwaram of the temple.

SHIVA-SHAKTHI-SAI DARBAR

On the right of the inner temple arch is the Shiva-Shakthi-Sai darbar, regarded as the soul of Ramaneswaram symbolizing the vision of this temple town. Visitors can have darshan of Adi Parashakthi,Yoga Rudra, Navadurgas and other deities. This is the second place to visit after darshan of village deities temples.

SAHASRA
SHIVA LINGAS TEMPLE

The benefits of Shiva Sahasranama Stotra are identified by Siddhaguru and penned a script that resulted in the consecration of 1008 Shiva Lingams here at Ramaneswaram. Visitors on the right and left of Shiva-Shakthi-Sai darbar can have darshan of 1008 Shiva Llingams consecrated in 12 sannidhanams with 1008 Lord Shiva names.

Each sannidhanam has Shirdi Sai baba idols consecrated along with Shivalingams. The darshan, sparshan (touch) of 1008 Shiva lingas with 1008 appellations of Lord Shiva (Shiva Sahasra Naam) consecrated HERE let you free from difficulties of life and predominantly from the cycle of birth and death.

3 feet
SWARNA SHIVA LINGAM

The main attraction of Ramaneswaram is Swarna (Gold) Shiva Lingam temple. The world's first of its kind- 3 feet in height and weighing around 250 Kgs, is specially consecrated by his holiness Siddhaguru Ramanananda Maharshi for fulfilling the materialistic and spiritual desires of devotees. Devotees can perform abhishekam to this Shiva Lingam chanting "OM ATHARVASHIRSHAYA NAMAHA ".

TRIAMBAKESWAR SAI

Adjacent to Golden Shivalingam Darbar, one can have a darshan of Traimbaka sai surrounded by 100 Veda Shiva Lingams. Here, the darshan of Shirdi Sai Baba will bless you with wealth and prosperity.

SHIVA SHAKTHI SAI DHUNI

Right opposite Triambakeshwar Sai Darbar, one can have darshan of Shiva-Shakthi-Sai Dhuni surround by 30 Shiva Lingams consecreated with 30 names of Lord Shiva of Shiva Sahasra Naam. Wishes not fulfilled for a long time are fulfilled here by offering sticks, coconut and Navadhanya. This is the place of Karmic destruction. Visitors should perform Pradakshina 108 times around it. for fulfilling their wish.

DWADASA JYOTIRLINGAS

Visitors after darshan of Dhuni will walk straight to the Upasani Baba Darbar. Here, they can have darshan of 12 Jyotirlingas in one shrine, along with Shiva Lingams consecrated in the name of Upasani yogi's 24 Kanyas. Visitors can perform Abhisekam to 12 Jyotirlingas at a time by paying a minimal amount.

UPASANI MAHARAJ DARBAR

Adjacent to Jyotirlingas, a 16 feet Monolith Bana Shiva Lingam was consecrated in the name of Upasani Maharaj (Sakori), a great disciple of Shirdi Sai Baba, followed by HIS idol and 24 Shiva Lingams in the name of Upasani Kanyas.

ANANDA - TEERTHAM

Adjacent to Dwadasa Jyotirlingas Shrine, visitors can have darshan of Ananda Teertham, where Shiva Lingams and 30 feet Akasha Shiva-Lingam are placed in water. These Shiva Lingams are surrounded by 28 Shiva Lingams in the name of 28 stars each, 9 Navagraha Shiva Lingams, 12 Shiva Lingams in the name of 12 Zodiac signs. Visitors are not allowed for holy bath in Ananda Teertham.

PARVATHI - PARMESWAR DARBAR

Visitors can have darshan of Goddess Parvathi and Lord Rudra in this sannidhanam. The speciality of this darbar is 6 feet Shiva Lingam consecrated in the name of Late Sri Purnananda Giri Yogini, who was the living guru of Siddhaguru Sri Ramanananda Maharshi.

VEDARISHI
SHIVA LINGAMS

His holiness Siddhaguru Sri Ramanananda Maharshi designed this “2016 Veda Rishi Shiva Lingams Consecration project” for the temple town of Ramaneswaram. 2016 Veda Rishi Shiva Lingams are dedicated to the names of each Veda Rishi as part of this effort.The main temple is surrounded by Veda Rishi Shiva Lingams, which exhibit their reverence and devotion to Lord Shiva.

VEDARISHI
SHIVA LINGAMS

The Shiva lingams are placed according to Veda Rishi's family heritage. A sannidhanam is allotted and dedicated to each Veda Rishi family. Until now, 251 Veda Rishi Shiva Lingams are consecrated in 11 Sannidhanams, along with deities and various Yogis idols. Within their lineage, each sannidhanam is given the name of the family head.

23 FEET MONOLITH BANA SHIVA LINGAM

Adjacent to Parvathi-Parmeshwar Darbar, one can have a darshan of 23 feet naturally born Monolith Bana Shiva Lingam imported from Bakawa in Barwah Tehsil in Khargone District of Madhya Pradesh State and consecrated in 2018 here at Ramaneswaram.

Significance of Bana Shivalingam :

Bana Shiva Lingam is the Shivaling of the highest order out of various types of Shiva Lingams being worshipped in this World. Knowing the power of Bana Shiva Lingam through his transcendental vision, Siddhaguru Sri Ramanananda Maharshi consecrated numerous Bana Shiva Lingams in this divine town. 23 feet Bana Shiva Lingam consecrated as 'Ramana Sai lingeswara' . This is the tallest monolithic Bana Shiva Lingam.

GOSHALA

Siddhaguru Sri Ramanananda Maharshi started goshala in the year 2015 at Ramaneswaram. to nurture and protect cows. Goshala and cows are an integral part of Mahapeetam and their upkeep is one of the prime activities undertaken here. Panchgavya, the five products received from the cow - milk, ghee, yogurt, dung, cow urine are used in the daily abhishekam and other ritualistic ceremonies performed at Ramaneswaram. Sacred ash or vibhuti extracted from cow dung is used in daily Shiva abhishekam. There are 250 plus cows in Goshala till date.

PUNAR DARSHANA PRAPTIRASTU

SARVE JANA SUKHINO BHAVANTU